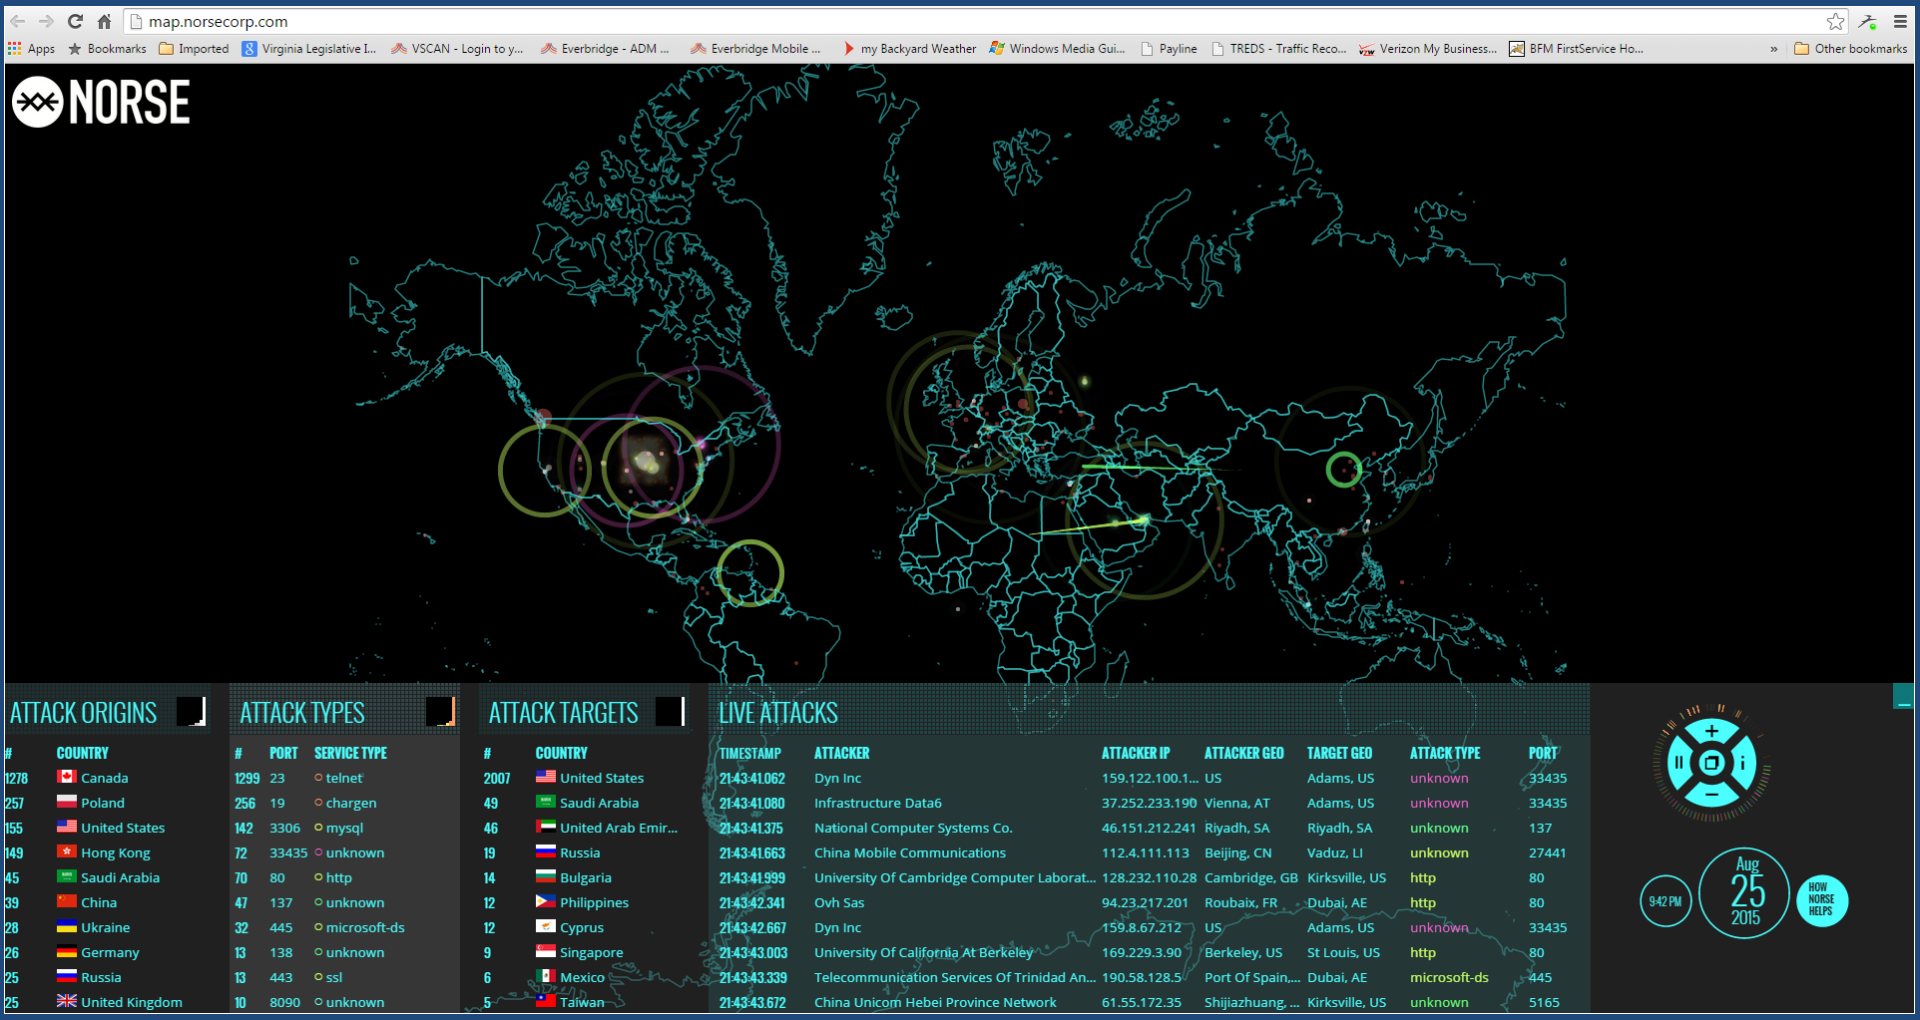
http://map.norsecorp.com/



11 security mistakes you probably keep on making

When it comes to data security, attackers continue to exploit the biggest weakness of all – people.

http://www.welivesecurity.com/2015/07/22/11-security-mistakes/

11 security mistakes you probably keep on making

1. Poor patching

Computer systems that are running on outdated software.

2. Too trustworthy

People are still too trusting in the digital world. We still open emails and links from people we don’t know.

http://www.welivesecurity.com/2015/07/22/11-security-mistakes/

11 security mistakes you probably keep on making

3. Reusing passwords

Weak and/or reused passwords.

4. Oversharing on social media

Younger generations are sharing almost every intricate detail of their lives online.

http://www.welivesecurity.com/2015/07/22/11-security-mistakes/

11 security mistakes you probably keep on making

5. No security solutions

Lack of Anti-virus & Anti-malware.

6. ‘It won’t happen to me’

Ignoring essential security practices.

http://www.welivesecurity.com/2015/07/22/11-security-mistakes/

11 security mistakes you probably keep on making

7. Leaving devices unattended

Leaving desktop computers, laptops, smartphones and tablets unattended and unlocked.

8. Browsing on unsecured connections

Connecting to insecure and open Wi-Fi hotspots

http://www.welivesecurity.com/2015/07/22/11-security-mistakes/

11 security mistakes you probably keep on making

9. Ignoring SSL certificate warnings

10. Downloading apps from third-parties

11. Rooting/Jailbreaking mobile devices

http://www.welivesecurity.com/2015/07/22/11-security-mistakes/