Capitol Police Investigating Shots Fired at State Office Building

RICHMOND, VA – Today the Division of Capitol Police recovered evidence from state offices located in the James Monroe Building, located at 101 North 14th Street. Evidence was recovered from a Department of Accounts office on the second floor, and from a Department of Treasury office on the fourth floor. Both offices are located on the south side of the building, and the window glass in both offices had been penetrated. There were no reported injuries. The incident occurred sometime during the weekend while the building was unoccupied. The Capitol Police are asking anyone with information to call 786-2120.

The Monroe Building, at 30 stories, is the tallest building in the Richmond skyline and home to roughly 1,000 state employees. It is situated just to the west of Interstate 95 and is maintained by the Department of General Services.
