Capitol Police seek General Assembly Building theft suspect

RICHMOND -- Virginia Capitol Police are asking for the public's help in identifying the man who broke in to the General Assembly Building construction site last month and stole power tools.

The theft occurred March 9 at 3:45 a.m. and involved numerous power drills/drivers.

The suspect was wearing dark-colored pants, a "WASHINGTON" ski cap and zip-up navy blue hoodie with bleach stains all over it. The man frequently scratched both sides of his face as if he had a nervous tic.

The three images below were taken from surveillance cameras.

Anyone with information can call Capitol Police dispatch at (804) 786-2568 and ask for the investigator on duty.
