Capitol Police statement

RICHMOND – The Virginia Division of Capitol Police was made aware early Wednesday of a possible violation of division policy by one of its sergeants.

As a result, Sgt. Robert A. Stamm has been placed on paid administrative leave pending the results of a review by the division.

“There is a review policy in place, and we will follow that policy,” said Col. Anthony S. Pike, the division’s chief.

The division will have no further comment on the matter at this time.
