Capitol Police seek high-end bike thief

RICHMOND – The Virginia Division of Capitol Police is asking for the public’s help in locating the person who stole a high-end electric bicycle from Capitol Square on Tuesday.

The bicycle, a Pedego valued at about $3,000 and owned by a private security contractor that helps patrol parking garages and other facilities at the Capitol, was taken at 9:26 a.m. from 12th and Bank streets, where it was parked.

The thief, an unidentified male, pedaled west on Bank Street before leaving the grounds of the Capitol at Ninth Street.

The bicycle is equipped with an electric throttle and pedal assist, allowing it to quickly reach speeds of 20 mph. A key, required to operate the electric features, was not in the bicycle at the time of the incident, but the thief was still able to pedal the bicycle away at a slower speed.

Anyone with information can call Capitol Police at (804) 786-2120 and ask for the investigator on duty or can email anonymous tips to investigations@dcp.virginia.gov
