Two Capitol Police Officers Graduate from the Academy

PETERSBURG, VA — On Thursday, March 30, 2017, at 7:00 pm, two new Division of Capitol Police officers graduated from the 88th Basic Law Enforcement Academy of the Crater Criminal Justice Training Academy. The ceremony took place at the Good Shepherd Baptist Church in Petersburg, VA. The two Capitol Police officers were among eighteen graduating officers representing eleven area police agencies. During the 26 week academy, officers completed 21 written tests, covering 1300 DCJS mandated training objectives.

The following Division officers were graduated:

Officer Richard E. Fowlkes, from Virginia Beach, VA

Officer Taj A. Wesley-Noor, from Richmond, VA

The officers will undergo extensive field training with a Division-certified Field Training Officer before being assigned to their respective shifts.
